- 1) At least ten years of participation in the organized sport of beagling.

- 3) Contribution to the sport. The people who make it happen in various ways, make it possible for others to have clubs and federations at which to compete.
- 4) Achievements, not just people who finish the most dogs but important to have had success in the sport. A candidate must demonstrate excellence in some or all of the facets of our sport. For example, breeding, field performance, judging, and club or association participation.
- 5) A candidate should demonstrate good character, someone who is gracious in defeat as well as victory. The candidate should be someone that promotes the sport in a positive light. A person of high integrity, someone people look up to. Someone that has been devoted to the success and growth of the sport.
